Limerick District Model National Schools. KstrictPMod-T These schools will open towards the end of August next. There will 8chool-. be in all four distinct schools; a school for boys, for girls, for infants, iimerci and a maritime school. A large and able staff of teachers has been selected. In the boys school all the ordinary branches of English will be taught, including geometry, algebra, book-keeping, and the various subjects so ably treated in the books published and sanctioned by the Board. A series of lectures on natural philosophy and the applied sciences will, from time to time, be delivered by the lecturer appointed for this purpose. The school will be connected with the agricultural establi-hraent at Mongret; and, after the lapse of a short time, instruction will be given in agriculture and horticulture. In the girls school,...
