I assured him they were both great; but he had only to remember our power in India to be satisfied of the military character of Britain. Well, then, added he, what do you think of my French officers? After this, he wished to know if I had heard of his campaigns across the Indus against the Ghazees, or fanatics of the Mahomedan religion; and said that he owed all his successes to the bravery of his nation, who were very free from prejudice, would carry eight days provision on their backs, dig a well if water were scarce, and build a fort if circumstances required it; a kind of service which he could not prevail on the natives of Hindostan to perform. The bravery of my troops, as you are aware, conquered Cashmere for me; and how do...
