There is no gospel worth preaching but the Gospel of Divine Grace, the grace of God that bringeth salvation. That Gospel is clearly, fully and lovingly revealed in the Bible - God its Author; truth without mixture its matter; and salvation its end. Of that Gospel the Christian preacher is the herald. He has simply to preach the preaching that God has bid; and God s bidding is so plain that he may run who reads. I have always aimed to preach a pure, simple and full Gospel; and in this endeavor one of my sweetest memories is of the beloved church in Pasadena, with which I labored seven happy years. As I look over these Sermons, I am back again in that pulpit which I left so reluctantly. I see again the many dear faces; I feel once more the quick and sympathetic response of hearts made new by the Spirit of God. God bless you all! What we so feebly preach now, we will gloriously sing together hereafter. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
