Chapter 1 Introduction must be stated in terms of specific job titles or professions. For example, education can be part of a plan but cannot be a goal in itself. As long as applicants specify a different work goal in each, there is also no limit PASS placed on the number of plans one individual can have, although only one is limited to a maximum of 48 PASS plan can be active at a time and each months. However, interim guidelines issued in January 1995, in response to a mandate in the Social Security Independence and Program Improvement Act of 1994, allow additional 6-month extensions to ongoing plans. participants represented only about three-tenths of PASS In December 1994, 1 percent of the working-age disabled population. The number of es SSI PASS PASS varies by state, with clusters in areas where outreach by professional preparers and service providers has been greatest. As...
