Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Alumni Review, Vol. 11: The University of North Carolina The New Year On Thursday, September 28, the University got off to a fine start for a new year. Five new buildings were put into service, thirty-two new teachers of various ranks ranging from instructor to full professor joined the faculty group, and a student body of 1800 settled down to the tasks of the campus. Not only in new buildings and increased faculty and student body has the institution evidenced its readiness for the big job ahead. The equipment of offices, laboratories, and libraries has gone steadily forward, and the requirements for entrance have been held to the fifteen unit minimum more strictly than ever before. All along the line, there has been a distinct tightening up, and from all indications 1922-23 should be, and must be, Carolina s greatest year. University Day Thursday, October 12, the University s birthday, is marked down in the calendar of the University and of every alumnus as a red letter day. Although it has been celebrated 128...
