Saint Julian Press, Inc., United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Endless: A Literate Passion is a transformative collection of dramatic monologues that transport the reader through exotic and sensuous ports--the Red Sea, the Mediterranean, Manhattan, the Silicon Valley--and into the secret lives and loves of our most beloved icons--Anais Nin and Henry Miller, Zelda and F. Scott Fitzgerald, Amelia Earhart and Fred Noonan, Jack Kerouac and the Beat Generation, Anne Morrow and Charles Lindbergh, and Marilyn Monroe.with exquisite cover art Anais Henry by painter Eric Anfinson, Endless is a must for lovers of travel, of words, of passion, and transformation. Artist Eric Anfinson, creator of Anais and Henry, explains: Anne s writing is intimate, tactile, rhythmic and vast.I found myself taken to many places and into different periods of time. About Anais Henry, Anfinson shares: Henry Miller is focused on the lady in red dress, a combination of Anne Tammel and Anais Nin.Passion corners us, yet we yearn to be there.The balcony, the space of their relationship, is surrounded by beauty and perils.Miller is seated; his power is an intellect and internal passion.with the silk red journal, positioned between them, and red silk journals are covered in sweat and secrets. Water, sky, and land allow for the endless waves, sky, and travel, and also represent the emotions, conscious, and unconsciousness of our lives. ENDLESS reads like a love letter.I feel I m inside a museum of daring sculptures, a Grecian sun glinting off the bone white marble. The collection--voluptuous. Its rhythms searching, sensual, and authentic like a wife--an insatiable wife.a lover of silk.and words.and your breath, finding the authentic voice within the poet s internal theater. I slipped easily into these literary shoes to...
