Abraham Lincolns Path to Reelection in 1864: Our Greatest Victory

By Fred J. Martin Jr.

Authorhouse. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 532 pages. Dimensions: 8.9in. x 6.0in. x 1.3in. The fate of the Union and the emancipation of slaves were at stake in the national election of 1864. It was the most important election in the history of the United States, and a beacon of hope for the world. As Abraham Lincoln explained: The most reliable indication of public purpose in this country is derived through our popular elections. Lincoln's presidency is taken step by step, and the words quoted are Lincoln's own, and so too the words of opponents and allies. Lincoln took office faced with a bankrupt nation without a currency, a tax structure, a functioning government, or a loyal and effective military. The book addresses Lincoln's oversight of the national reconstruction while functioning as commander-in-chief. This is the story of how Lincoln mastered language, and how his words changed public perspective, drove home emancipation, reignited the ideals of freedom, and saved democratic government. In all he said, Lincoln's words speak freedom to peoples the world over today as in 1864. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
