Once more the shy thrush lingers in the shade, The tardy white-throat pipes his piercing strain, While from the pasture crickets falsely shrill That spring has come again. The warm fields ring with tender mating-songs, And bright belated butterflies Soar in the sun-strewn breeze which softly brings, Upon its shining evanescent wings, Such plaintive memories. As still, in thought, the aged live anew A glorious youth which might have been their own, Walking, in old accustomed paths, with forms And visions that have gone; About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
