By investigating the validity of such certificate, you make even more certain the seller s claim to ownership, and mini mize the possibility of securing a bad title. This investigation can only be made by a high-class trade-mark special-ist, and is not inexpensive, but if proper-ly made, a resulting favorable report is worth more than the Patent Office certifi-cate by far By procuring and immediately record-ing an instrument of transfer that meets the legal requirements, you clinch your title, and immediately put yourself in the shoes of the former owner with all the benefits and advantages that accrued to him by his use and resulting owner-ship. HOW PEANUTS GROW The common peanut grows in a peculiar...
