UNCOVERING FASHION: FASHION COMMUNICATIONS ACROSS THE MEDIA (PAPERBACK)

Bloomsbury Publishing PLC, United Kingdom, 2009. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 234 x 188 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. The dynamics of fashion depends on visuals: when we see something we like, we respond to its color, line, form, and eye-appeal. In that sense, fashion communicates itself-without words, without added graphics. But the world of fashion demands much more than the mere presence of garments and accessories and footwear. It involves a wide range of communications, including words-printed, spoken, and electronically transmitted. Those words may serve alone, or they may be paired with images and designs that enhance and illustrate their meaning. This text takes a systematic approach to uncovering fashion to reveal the industry s underlying network of communications. The term fashion communications refers not only to monthly fashion magazines, but also to every facet of information relating to fashion-from the names of colors at the dye factory, to the latest runway reviews posted on fashion Web sites. Focusing on four key areas-manufacturing; business; sales and advertising; and representation in the media-Wolbers uses a who-what-when- why approach. As Professor Horacek so eloquently states in her Foreword, this book is truly a must for fashion programs anywhere or for anyone who seeks to develop and hone their communication skills. Features -- Specific assignments and exercises designed for both inside and outside the classroom to help students master the unique language of fashion -- Profiles of various forms of fashion communications related to the content of each chapter -- Tips and guidelines for efficient research and information presentations -- Personal Profiles in each chapter support material in text -- Additional assignments and projects, along with samples of grading rubrics to assist instructors -- Instructor s Guide contains tips on how to use the text in a variety of different courses,...
